Petersburg, Va., November 25, 1910.
The Rev, A. M. Hall, a venerable and greatly esteemed minister of the Virginia Conference, died to-day at his home on Harrison Street, after a protracted iliness. He retired from the active ministry some years ago on account of increasing age and infirmiy. Mr. Hall is survived by his wife, four daughters and several grandchildren. His daughters are: Mrs. E.
H. Simonson, of Petersburg: Mrs. W.
C. Hall and Mrs. Hanceck Jacob, of Norfolk, and Mrs. Lewis Ellison, of Portsmouth.

Third Day of the Training School.
As the days pass interest increases in the Training School for Sunday School Workers, now holding its threedays' session in the First Baptist Church. The attendance is larger, even among those who are not active workers, but among those who feel an interest in Sunday schools. The instruction imparted is valuable. It embraces all grades of the Sunday schools from the Infant to the Bible class, the organization of schools, the relations of teachers to pupils, the duties of superintendents, etc.

The lecturers—Miss Margaret A. Frost, the Rev. Joseph T. Watts and Arthur Flake, are trained instructors in Sunday school work, and they speak on subjects of vital interest to the successful organization and maintenance of the school. This afternoon und to-night the work with the juniors, the superintendent and the home department were the subjects discussed. An hour is spent between the afternoon and evening meeting for luncheon and social intercourse, and a half-hour in conference work.

An unidentified clderly negro was run over and killed to-day by the eastbound passenger train on the Norfolk and Western Railway, due in this city at 12:30 o'clock. The accident occurred near the Atlantic Coast Line coursed near the Atlantic Coast Line belt line crossing, in Dinwiddle county, a short distance west of the city. The body was cut to pieces and mangled. The body was allowed to remain at the scene of the accident until it could be viewed by the county coroner.

Monument to General Mahone.

Steps are to be taken looking to a reorganization of the Old Mahone Brigade Association and to renew the efforts some time ago inaugurated to erect a monument to that famous Confederate general. It is understood that Colonel Wm. H. Stewart, the president, will be asked to call a meeting of the association for these purposes. The association has some funds in hand for the monument, and it is believed no difficulty will be had in raising the full amount necessary.
